

Getting There

Grenada Can Be reached by air or sea, via the Port Salines International Airport, or by sea via St. George's Harbour...

read more >

By Air

Located at the southern tip of Grenada, Point Salines International Airport accommodates all long haul jets as well as commercial and private jets from around the world. Smaller, inter-island carriers serve the other islands in the Caribbean and BWIA serves Toronto, New York, Miami and London. British Airways, Virgin and Excel fly from the UK and Condor from Frankfurt. Air Jamaica fly from New York and also have regular flights from Montego Bay and Miami. Inter-island flights are served by Liat and Caribbean Star to all major islands in the Caribbean.

Guests of Peter de Savary's Properties flying by private aircraft may use the Private Air Terminal at Grenada International Airport with private customs and immigration services. Nutmeg One is available to guests of Peter de Savary's Properties for private charter, for journeys between Grenada, Barbados and other neighbouring islands.

By WaterSt. George's Harbour is a port of call for yachts and many inter-island ferries. Boats can also clear customs at various other points around Grenada and the Port Louis Marina will accept boats up to 100m with full customs and immigration services.

Required DocumentsAll visitors must present a valid passport and a return or onward ticket. Visas are not required from citizens of Canada, the US, the UK, British Commonwealth, Caribbean countries, members of the European Union, Japan or South Korea.